

GAA INJURY Benefit Fund

What is it and how does it work?

A Fund to support and assist registered members in the event of an accidental bodily injury during Gaelic Games playing activities. The Fund is not an insurance cover. All Persons participate in Gaelic Games activities at your own risk.

If you do not have your own Personal Cover (Private Health Insurance, Personal Accident insurance cover) The GAA have the GAA Injury Benefit Fund in place to assist

If you have your own personal cover, you must submit a claim under that cover first and the Injury Fund will top up the shortfall to the fund benefit limits
